SMALL TOWN HUMOR AND PHILOSOPHY By BUCK CAMPBELL

An honest effort should be appreciated.

A spendthrift lover may be come a worthless husband.

The husband who comes in like a lion generally goes out like a lamb.

The sunshine and rain are life inspiring, but the moonshine is life itself.

A man will play golf all day for "exercise" who would make his wife carry in the ketchup and build the fire.

If a man worked as hard at a poetical job as he does to get it there would be a whole lot more efficiency in public offices.

When a young man goes after chickens he should not be disappointed when he succeeds in catching one if he gets hen-pecked.

Publicity Meetings Last Week Well Attended; Much Interest Shown

The series of publicity meetings at Curtis, Pine Level, Goodman, Mt. Pleasant, Enterprise, Elba, Kinston, New Hope and Farmers Academy last week were well attended and much interest manifested in the various development activities which the county has established.

Judge Carnley and the Commissioners represented the Good Roads work; Prof. Hudson, County Board of Education, Miss Farris and State Superintendent Jno. W. Arnold, the Educational Department; Miss Handley, State Director Child Welfare Work; Miss Jean Langston, new welfare worker for Coffee County and Miss Mattie Dowling, former worker for County food of the work of the Child Welfare department; Dr. Rankin, Mr. Price, Miss Cason and Mr. Welsh, State Health Officer, represented health while the Farm and Home Extension work was discussed by Miss Grace James and R. C. Arnold.

Judge Mayfield, former Supreme Court Justice of Alabama delivered two eloquent and inspiring talks at Elba and Enterprise. His main subject was the Constitution and a greater exposition on the subject was never listened to by any audience. Prof. Snuggs, Principal of Coffee County High School at Enterprise marched his student body down to the courthouse to hear Judge Mayfield's Exposition of the Constitution.

Other speakers supposed to have been on the program were Gov. W. W. Brandon and Hon. J. M. Moore, Commissioner of Agriculture, but both were detained on account of urgent business in other parts of the State.

Coffee County Commissioners Court and Board of Education together with the progressive people all over the county were congratulated upon their vision of progress and ambitious program which they have inaugurated.

These meetings will be continued from time to time until this progressive program inaugurated by the Court of County Commissioners and Board of Education in co-operation with State and Federal departments shall have been carried to every community in Coffee County and its work felt there.

FORMER COFFEE CITIZEN FOUND DEAD IN BED AT OPELIKA.

Mr. Arthur Bailey, for many years a citizen of Coffee County but the past several years living at Opelika died at his home in the Lee county city about 6:00 o'clock Tuesday morning. His death came suddenly. It is said that he was up about five o'clock and went to his store with a customer. He returned to his home and about six o'clock he was found dead, his body still being warm.

The remains were brought to Pine Level cemetery Wednesday where the burial occurred. Rev. D. M. Elland, of Bullock, performed the services. Mr. Bailey was well known in this section and his friends will regret to learn of his passing.

Inaugurated for the general development of the county and its citizens along lines of roads, schools, health, child welfare and home extension work. Judge Mayfield said that from High Jackson to Low Baldwin it was generally known that Coffee County had some of the best farming lands of the state. Dr. Welsh stated that no Health Unit in the United States had done more work in the few months time since its inauguration in the County than Dr. Rankin with his workers. Over 10,000 doses of Antityphoid Serum have been administered since the middle of July along with other work.

In matters of co-operative farm work it was shown that the people have co-operated whole-heartedly to the extent of saving over $50,000.00 the first year of its existence and next year will see the farmers activities in Coffee County mounting as high as $60,000.00 in co-operative marketing and purchasing.

These meetings will be continued from time to time until this progressive program inaugurated by the Court of County Commissioners and Board of Education in co-operation with State and Federal departments shall have been carried to every community in Coffee County and its work felt there.

Judge Carnley Writes About Campaign For Pushing Coffee Ahead

During the four days campaign last week in Coffee County we visited many schools. We had with us in this campaign Miss Virginia B. Handley, State Child Welfare Director, Hon. John W. Abernethy, State Supt. of Education, Dr. S. W. Welsh, State Health Officer, and Hon. James J. Mayfield, representing the Governor of Alabama, who could not come. Hon. J. M. Moore, Commissioner of Agriculture, and Industries, was also prevented from coming.

We had with us our County Health Officer, Dr. H. P. Rankin, our Sanitary Inspector, Mr. Price, our County Health Nurse, Miss Cason, our County Supt. of Education, J. E. Hudson, our School Supervisor, Miss Farris, our Home Demonstration Agent, Miss James, our Farm Demonstration Agent, R. G. Arnold, and our Child Welfare worker, Miss Langston, also our visiting Child Welfare Supt., Miss Dowling.

These made up the forces who visited schools, taking places in central points in the county. These meetings were a revelation of our tremendous responsibilities. No one attending these schools and these communities could fail to feel and know the great needs of the work which our County program proposes to do for the people of the entire County.

These were visitors from Enterprise, Mt. Pleasant, New Brockton and Kinston. Miss Miriam Russ entertained a number of her little friends at a most beautiful party Saturday afternoon, the occasion being her birthday.

The living and dining rooms were decorated in pink and white. The white birthday cake was surrounded by dainty candies held in pink rose bud holders, and made a lovely center piece for the table.

Childish games were played, the Men's Man, and the young people's game, and the county's great revivalist begins a revival meeting at 11, a. m. at the Methodist Church next Sunday. Hear Him.

Miss Barbara Carlisle spent the week-end in Auburn.

Misses Huey Cason and Laura Bryant spent last Thursday and Friday in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Ham, of Sogreave, Fla., are in Elba to spend the winter.

Elba Tigers Take Third Game From Opp Team; Coach Arrived Monday

The Elba Tigers third weekly meal was off the Opp "Bob Cats," eaten in six mouthfuls, which means that Elba triumphed over Opp to the tune of 6 to 0 last Friday. The first half developed no starting plays altho the Elba boys carried the ball to Opp's 20 yard line twice in this period, and being held attempted drop kicks only to fail.

The Opp boys attempted a strong come-back in the second half and got the ball to Elba's 30 yard line only to lose on a fumble. Elba also showed some fighting blood and the close of the 3rd quarter carried the ball to Opp's 16 yard line by off-tackle and cris-cross plays. An attempted drop kick fell short and Opp's quarter-back "Red" Sellers ran the ball to mid-field, only to lose on downs as the third quarter ended.

The fourth quarter opened with Elba's ball on her 40 yard line. Rowell made 12 yards over left tackle. Wise made 4 over right guard. Knight made 9 off right tackle. The ball was on Opp's 35 yard line. Bucks by all four back-field men in quick succession gained 25 yards and Elba had the ball on Opp's 10 yard line, only to lose on a fumble. The next play, Opp kicked to Rowell who returned 5 yards; and then Elba began a march such as has rarely been seen on the local field—one line buck after another by first one back and then the other until John Knight heaved one final mighty blow and carried the ball over for the only touch down of the game.

The whole team played well and it would be hard to pick one star without dimming the glory of the other players. Brown leaped Opp's line several times to down his man for a loss; the line was a "Rock of Gibraltar" on defense and on offense charged fiercer than ever before. Coach Oliver is now on hand and is drilling the boys in the tactics that have made the University of Alabama team Champions of the South. The Elba team bids fair to "burn up" this neck of the woods—JUST WATCH OUR SMOKE!

Mr. Pete Lee was a visitor in Auburn last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cooper left Monday for a visit to various parts in Fla. They will visit Winter Haven, Orlando and other interesting places.

Mrs. John Lee English and son, have returned from Tennessee where they visited Mrs. English's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cotter.

Mrs. Bina Byrd of Montgomery spent last week-end in Elba the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Hudson.

THREE NEGRO CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH SATURDAY NIGHT.

Three small children, of Arch Caldwell, colored, were burned to death about seven o'clock Saturday night, when the house occupied by the family was destroyed by fire. The negroes lived in the Lee community, Northwest of town.

It is said that the mother of the children had gone away and the children were alone in the house. The father came in on learning that the mother had gone off, put the children to bed, put out the fire and went to look for the mother. A short time after he left neighbors discovered that the house was in flames, and on arriving made the gruesome find that the three children had been burned up. It is thought that the fire rekindled after the man left the house. From the position of the bodies of the children, they had tried to escape from the building, but were overcome by the flames. Those who visited the scene describe it as a most horrible one.

STATE WELFARE WORKER FINDS THING ON BOOM IN COFFEE.

Friday's Advertiser says: Miss Virginia Handley, director of the state child welfare department, who returned Thursday from a stay of several days in Coffee county, where she went to install Miss Jean Langston as county welfare worker, and to enlist the interest of all citizens in a modern welfare program, said she found upon her arrival that the welfare program is but a part of a general program of progress that has been inaugurated there.

Development of this program is being carried out by a publicity campaign that is being conducted throughout the county under the direction of Probate Judge J. A. Carnley. This campaign, Miss Handley says, is the best planned and most effective that has ever come under her observation, and it is her opinion that its value to the progress of the county and those who reside there is incalculable.

The object of the campaign is to acquaint all the people of Coffee county with the purpose of the progressive program that has been adopted. In addition to welfare work, the program also includes public health, better schools, agriculture, home building and good roads. Each of these things, it is pointed out, is related to the other, and it is the purpose of the program to have progress along all these lines go hand in hand.

In connection with the publicity campaign, there is a program of public addresses by state officials now under way, and talks are being delivered at various points in the county. Among those who have already delivered a number of addresses are: Miss Handley, Dr. S. W. Welch, state health officer; Dr. John W. Abernethy, state superintendent of education; Judge J. J. Mayfield; commissioner of agriculture and industries; J. M. Moore and a representative of the state highway department.

Talks are also being made by Judge Carnley and other members of the county commission; J. E. Hudson, county superintendent of education; R. G. Arnold, county farm demonstration agent, and other county officials. The people of Coffee County, Miss Handley says, are prosperous and progressive. The county's coffee industry, she stated she is charmed with the people of Coffee county, and impressed and delighted with the public spiritedness and progressiveness of Coffee county's citizens.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Panthe Cunningham, the business meeting was presided over by the teacher, Mrs. W. F. Cooper. This class is planning an entertainment of an unusual type for the future. Definite plans will be announced later. Following the business hour, Mrs. Owen, assisted by Mrs. C. P. Hayes and Mrs. W. R. JUDGE CARNLEY WRITES ABOUT CAMPAIGN.

On having such a farm demonstration agent. Miss Cason will visit the schools and homes and do her work, and her work will bring great and lasting benefits to the people of the County. Miss Farris and Mr. Hudson are very busy folks. They have all these schools and many difficult problems to solve.

Miss Dowling has left us, but she carries with her the satisfaction of a work well performed. These things and the road program in Coffee lie close to my heart, and the County Board of Education and the County Commissioners hope to have the untold cooperation of the good citizens of the County in this work. Untold and unmeasured results will come from this up-to-date and progressive program. But it will depend on the cooperation of all the people. This was the object of our publicity campaign.

We have in Coffee a fine citizenship. They are co-operating admirably with the county administration forces and are rapidly placing their county to the front. Everywhere we went last week we found this same public spirited and progressive spirit of the people. Greater things await us, and Coffee County promises to lead in this great work.

J. A. Carnley,
Judge of Probate.

Prayer meeting, Wednesday 7:15 p. m.

Do not forget that next Sunday, Dr. J. M. Shofner of Mobile will begin our revival in Elba. The name of the preacher ought to be enough to have a house full to hear him the first service.

Dr. Shofner is a great revivalist and is as simple as a child in his vivid illustrations and heart messages. If you will hear him once you cannot stay away from the other services, which will be held at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. We invite all denominations and creeds to hear this gospel preacher afire with zeal and love for the King and his kingdom.

The weather is pleasant and the time is apt and the opportunity great.

We are glad to have Miss Estelle Sentell as a member of our church. Her work among the young people is already resulting in great benefit.

We should like to have the people outside our community attend the protracted services as they come in a time when all have time to attend.

Dr. Shofner will be invited to preach at Liberty Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

F. M. LOWREY, Pastor.

Mr. R. E. James, of Havana, Cuba, arrived the first of the week to join his wife and little son in a visit to relatives in Elba. His many friends are glad to see him again.

In George Washington's time ice cream was a novelty but the average United States citizen now eats two and one-half gallons a year.

SHOOTING AFFRAY ABOVE TOWN SUNDAY NIGHT.

In a shooting affray which occurred about five miles above Elba on the Troy highway Sunday night, Alton Parker, of Elba, was shot three times by a man named Bragg, according to reports of the affair. Bragg was also wounded in the leg. Details of the affair cannot be learned. It is claimed that the trouble arose when two cars collided. Other reports state that this was not the cause of the shooting.

Parker was hit three times: once in the neck, once in the arm and also in the leg. The neck wound was considered dangerous and he was carried to Troy hospital the first of the week. It was also reported that Bragg's leg was broken by the shot. This has not been verified.

TROY NORMAL OUTFIT WINS OVER ELBA HIGH.

In one of the best games seen on the local gridiron, in Troy, Elba High held the Troy Normal football team to the close score of 13 to 6 here Friday. The first period opened with most of Troy's team composed of reserves and ended in a scoreless tie with Elba on the long end in the matter of first downs. The half closed just as Rowell, Elba's fleet halfback, ran forty yards on an intercepted pass, putting the ball in a scoring position. The whistle blew and robbed the locals of a chance to score.

The second half opened with the Normal varsity intact. On a penalty and a forward pass Troy registered her first touchdown. Sam kicked goal. On another pass in the fourth Troy scored six more points. Senn's place kick was blocked. As the game was nearing its close Rowell, Elba's back, received a kickoff on his own 15 yard line and raced 85 yards to a touch down through the entire Troy team. This was one of the prettiest runs ever witnessed in Elba.

The features of the game for the visitors were Ellis' line plunging and Turner's line running on end. For the locals the run of Rowell and the defensive play of Larkin stood out while the whole team showed up well. Elba plays Red Level next Friday.

Mrs. C. E. Dorsey and Mrs. S. H. Brock spent Wednesday in Troy shopping.

Miss Louise Bass, of Enterprise is teaching in the Elba commercial school.

The farmer who never sees beyond the farm gate with his eyes on the soil probably never sees real success.

It is said that the discovery of America was due to the fact that people had no artificial ice in those days. Meat was the most important part of their diet and, lacking any other way to keep meat, they treated it with salt and various spices. To find a nearer way to India, whence came spices, Columbus undertook to cross the Atlantic and stumbled upon America.
